Posh Perch

Your pup patiently endures the indignities of the scooper, the leash, the dog-sweater... why not reward him with a bed befitting his, er, noble stature? The regal, chocolate-brown patterned Florence Dog Pillow from Jax & Bones is a witty way to bring the rococo theme into your home... and to spoil your pooch rotten while indulging your home-decorating impulses. The stylish, smoothy pillow comes in square or round shapes in a variety of sizes, so every long-suffering doggie can finally have a suitably classy place to lay his weary, furry head. $98 to $170 at JaxAndBones.com.
